TARIFF BILL'S CHANCE

Good Prospects of It Becoming a Law.

IT WILL PASS BOTH HOUSES

The Views of Senator Voorhees, Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, on the Amended Measure—The Free List Has Not Been Changed as Much as Had Been Supposed—Some of the Articles Changed.

WASHINGTON, March 10—The tariff bill as reported by the senate committee, makes so many changes from the measure as it passed the house that members of congress are, as a rule not expressing very decided opinions on it Many of its provisions are opposed by different members for local reasons, but the belief is general that the bill will pass after the conference committee has made certain concessions and changes What these may be remains to be developed

There is little probability that the measure will be made satisfactory to the various interests represented by it, but when it comes to the alternative of either passing the bill as the conference committee reports it, or not having any tariff legislation the probabilities are that it will go through

It is almost certain to do this in the house but two antagonistic Democratic votes may defeat it in the senate. Senator Hill announces that he will fight the income and corporation tax provisions Senator Murphy says he is not satisfied with the bill Senator Brice doubts its passage in its present form

Senator Voorhees says "We have but a majority in the senate, and two Democrats have the power in their hands to defeat the bill. We realized that to pass the bill every Democratic vote was necessary. The committee was convinced that this united front could not be secured without concessions It was concessions or no bill If the bill could have passed without restoring the tax on sugar and coal I would never have conceded a point. Great reforms are never accomplished without concessions

The bill as it now stands while not reaching as far as I should desire will save annually to the consumers more than $100,000,000 and at the same time increase the revenues of the government over $60,000,000 Million of dollars paid by the consumers under the McKinley tariff goes to the trusts while under this bill the tax will go to the United States treasury Last year the sugar trusts paid out in dividends $75,000,000 Then the people had to pay $15,000,000 in bounties to the sugar growers all of which is wiped out in this bill

Senator Voorhees said that enough concessions had been made to insure the passage of the bill in the senate There could not be any doubts about that The middle of April is the time set for the final vote on the bill by Mr Voorhees The bill will remain one week in the committee, to give the Republicans an opportunity to make a report against it then it will be reported to the senate where it will remain another week before taken up for discussion Three weeks would be sufficient time for discussion in the senate, he said

The policy of the Democratic side would be to let the Republicans do most of the talking The Democrats would not consume time with long speeches but would confine their remarks to the presentation of facts and reasons for the various changes in the schedules

There were no reasons, he said, why the bill should not reach the president in six weeks

The free list is not so much changed as had been supposed it would be and the obstructions from it are far more numerous than the additions The date when the free list shall go into effect is changed from June 1 1894 to June 30, 1894 Apples of all kinds are stricken from the free list and placed on the dutiable list Bituminous coal, shale coal slack and coke are transferred to the dutiable list leaving anthracite on the free list Cocoa nuts is made dutiable Diamonds and other precious stones rough or uncut, are added to the free list Floor matting is made dutiable Dates cocoanuts, Brazil nuts peanuts and gambier are also taken from the free list Cod oil is made free of duty

Salted nuts disappear from the free list Iron ores is taken from the free list and also olives and orchids, azaleas and palms and other plants used for forcing under glass for cut flowers. Double and twisted silk, or silk advanced in manufacturing any way to pay a duty Sugars are to be moved to the list

BLAND'S SEIGNIORAGE BILL

The Final Vote Will Be Taken in the Senate Next Thursday

WASHINGTON, March 10—Senator Peffer at the opening of the session, offered a resolution providing for a committee to examine charges in various newspapers that certain senators had utilized knowledge gained officially for dealing in sugar stocks and had made large gains In reply to Mr Morrill, Mr Peffer stated that he had no personal knowledge of the charges, and at his request the resolution was tabled temporarily

Mr West called up the house bill authorizing a bridge over the Last river between New York and Long Island The bill passed without objection

A bill was passed appropriating $200,000 to pay the damages resulting to the persons who went upon the Crow Creek and Winnebago Indian reservation in South Dakota between Feb 1st and 27 1889

Also a bill granting a right of way across the Scarborough Hill military reservation in Washington state to the Tilwaco Railway and Navigation company

The calendar was then cleared of the unfinished business

Mr Allison asked that the bill go over until Wednesday at 2 o'clock

Mr Sherman inquired if amendments would be offered

Mr Allison replied that he did not think it would be sent to this

Mr Voorhees suggested that a short discussion followed and finally Mr Hill suggested that Wednesday at 2 o'clock be taken on Mr Allison's motion

Mr Sherman reconsider and if that failed Mr Morrison might move to commit to the finance committee, the final vote to be taken Thursday at 2 o'clock The latter was agreed to and debate on the bill was then resumed

In the House

WASHINGTON, March 10—In the house, after transacting some business of minor importance, the house went into committee of the whole for the further consideration of the District of Columbia bill In the course of debate Mr Kilgore denounced the district press as subservient tools of all job in the district to plunder the treasury At 3 o'clock the district closed and voting took place on various amendments

At 5 o'clock without completing the consideration of the bill, the house took a recess until 8 o'clock the evening session to be devoted to private pension bills

IMPROVEMENT IN BUSINESS

Great Activity Shown at Present, But Confidence in Future Improvement Does Not Seem to Increase Distinct Gain in Iron and Steel Manufacture—Industries Are Growing Less Important

NEW YORK March 10 —R G Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says Evidences of present improvement in business multiply but confidence in future improvement does not seem to increase This is one business and a larger production by industries for the season has arrived when greater activity is necessary if dealers stock is to be replenished and those who can not make calculations beyond a few months are the more anxious to see what is much trade is to be safely done into those months

In some branches of distribution however there is the aim of a diminishing demand but goods and the evident tendency for months has been toward prices with the known reduction in wages and family expenditure is low Failures are not more numerous than usual, though liabilities including many individuals are much larger Shipments from the east are less than the west and the speculative markets are weak and irregular

Iron and steel manufactures and dry goods show a steadily enlarging production of stocks is as unusual at the west but not at all usual in the east Such short expectations makes business and speculation seem to many to continue but in wages also no material reduction has yet occurred which will not be followed by a corresponding reduction in prices of products

The Republicans at the primary election yesterday nominated for Mayor Ex Treasurer Officer James V Smiley He had a majority of 231 over T C Calvert his closest competitor The nomination offends the intelligence of a majority of the Republicans of the city, who cannot see in J V Smiley any qualifications that a Mayor should possess He has been a pensioner upon the people of Lima ever since he became a resident of the city and his desire to have a life tenure of public office to the exclusion of other members of his party has created a feeling of intense dissatisfaction, approaching disgust among the people of the city especially so as his official life has been characterized by rank incompetency His nomination is conceded to be the weakest that could have been made and is a sure precursor of Democratic victory

The remainder of the ticket is correspondingly weak and the Democrats now have an excellent opportunity to elect the entire municipal ticket in this city

Secretary Herbert's order for the assembling of a fleet of war ships at Sitka by May 1 next, for the protection of the seals in Pering Sea, is an assurance that our Government means to firmly assert its rights as determined by the Paris tribunal despite the audacious movement of Canadian sealers on the one hand, or the efforts of the British Government on the other, in order to secure a modification of the regulations which experience has shown to be necessary

Great Britain has two of her interminable little wars on hand one on the Gambia in West Africa against the slave raiders and another in East Africa on the Zambesi against the Portuguese Oceana as the new British Prime Minister Lord Rosebery would call the future world embracing maritime Empire consisting of Great Britain and her colonies united in one grand federation is a magnificent dream It will require a good deal of hammering however, to bold the fragments together

The Republican papers took occasion on the 4th of March to indulge in deleful reviews of the condition of the country consequent is they allege on one year of Democratic rule The panic was the creation of the Democracy according to the logic, but they fail to explain why it has been world wide in its sweep Democracy is a pretty big institution but it hardly determines conditions in Great Britain France Germany, Italy and Grecian generally The Democratic party took power on the 4th of March, 1893, pledged to three things namely namely 1 The repeal of the Sherman silver law 2 The repeal of the Federal election law 3 The reform of the McKinley tariff Within the year they have repealed the Sherman law, they have repealed the Federal election law and have passed through the House, and have pending in the Senate a comprehensive plan of tariff reform and revision The chances are that it will be in operation on the 1st of June This is doing pretty well The Democracy is willing and proud to stand on its record If the republican papers are in a repentant mood they will find plenty of material for reflection in a comparison of the condition of the treasury and finance generally when Cleveland gave way to Harrison on the 4th of March, 1889 and the condition on the 4th of March, 1893, when Harrison gave way to Cleveland

Why Hood's Wins.

President Lincoln said "You cannot fool the people a second time" They are quick to recognize real merit or lack of it, and cling only to those things which they find to be what is claimed for them

It is especially gratifying that the sale of Hood's Sarsaparilla increases most rapidly in those sections where it is best known

The inference is plain Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven that it possesses genuine merit It maintains a high standard which others cannot even approach It is the people's favorite blood purifying and building up medicine, and is more popular this year than ever before All this because Hood's Cures

Turned Up Matters

Says a writer in the St Louis Post Dispatch This is a true story could give name and place if it were necessary A French gentleman visited a relative in St Louis and being a great sportsman at home was taken out one day to shoot prairie chickens One got up the Frenchman fired and missed but as the bird sailed along in its peculiar way he thought it mortally wounded and ran a mile to catch it before he found out his mistake Next year the St Louis gentleman visited the French relative at his chateau in Normandy and being a great sportsman at home was taken out one day to shoot hare in the park The gamekeeper placed him at the crossing of two well worn paths

Soon a big hare came trotting along and St Louis raised his gun Please don't shoot him monsieur, cried the keeper That is old Antoine, the father of all the hares! The gun was dropped and as the keeper suggested the three or four more hares that came along ought not to be shot because they were the children of Antoine and Fifine St Louis turned to the chateau in disgust

A Story of Gladstone.

Mr Gladstone as a rule, is the model of punctuality at dinner time both as a host and a guest He however when staying at the house of one of his wealthiest supporters recently made a harangue in the neighborhood of Norwich Mr Gladstone did for once keep both his host and the other guests waiting in the drawing room for several minutes after the servant had announced dinner At last the premier entered the room smiling and rubbing his hands benevolently Looking all around he inquired in most genial tones, Are we all mustered? As the host happened to have accumulated a large fortune by the manufacture of mustard those present were for a moment inclined to unjustly suspect on several grounds of perpetrating a pun at his entertainer's expense —London Court Journal

A STARTLING FACT.

Sixteen Per Cent of Life Insurance Applicants Rejected on Account of Diseased Kidneys

Dr Lambert the general medical director of the Equitable Life Insurance company New York said "My experience in one of the applications made to us for insurance and I have passed the entire expense of this medical department by the rejection some of applicants who had diseased kidneys and who died within two years after I rejected them

This appalling statement should have the attention of every one Then is no reason on the day why people should allow kidney ills to get such a hold on them Nature sends her warning in the slight pain in the back pour irritation of the blood sediment in the urine When any of these symptoms appear Dr David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy should be taken in small doses at once and thus drive the poison out of the blood and restore the kidneys to healthy action In our knowledge this is the only medicine that so quickly cures this almost universal complaint

We note the recovery of Mr O M Limbert of Leroy Mo whose case has been talked of in the papers the world over Quoting from his letter to the proprietors Mr Limbert says "About three years ago my health and I found myself in bed with a complicated case of the kidneys My mental suffering more than my physical pain I tried to help myself by using Dr David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy I believe very fully almost in medicine and in a few weeks I was strong at all pain and nicely rid

"My wife had been sick for months I write [illegible] using the Favorite Remedy for kidney disease when doctors failed to relieve me I drove [illegible] from one of my blood disorders [illegible] trouble

"I write this remedy has in all more friends in this county than all the newspapers in the county out of Ohio and I could have written [illegible] if I had known of it sooner"

The Squirrel Monkey.

The red backed tectee, or squirrel monkey, is by far the most beautiful in form and color of all the North American monkeys as well as being an interesting pet in captivity The length of the head and body is about 12 inches and the tail is about the same length In color the whole skull cap is black The ears, face, neck and throat are white The back is reddish brown The sides of the body forearms, hands and feet are richer yellow and the arms, thighs and upper two thirds of the tail are olive and gray The tail is not prehensile and the outer third of it is covered with rather bushy black hair longest at the end

I once owned a very near relative to the species described above—a tectee, but not this identical species—which was about the size of a gray squirrel with the nervous activity and sprightliness of three I bought it of a sleepy Indian in South America and it proved to be the plague of several people's lives

One that we shot and roasted for supper proved to better flavored than any squirrel I ever ate These monkeys are so small they are not apt to climb in the tree tops, and although easy enough to shoot are desperately hard to find afterward —William T Hornaday in St Nicholas

Our baby Pearl was born Nov. 29, 1891. From her birth she had Scall Head until she was four months old, then it became worse and came out in small white pimples, and then spread to be large yellow scabs. We tried two doctors, but they could not do it any good. So we tried CUTICURA REMEDIES, giving her a thorough washing three times a day with CUTICURA SOAP, and then using the CUTICURA. The first set we tried helped her, and before we used four sets she was perfectly cured. At the age of six months our baby weighed thirty-four pounds. Her skin is fair and smooth, and scalp perfectly well. Portrait inclosed. I would not do without CUTICURA REMEDIES, and can recommend them as most excellent for children. MRS. SETH JUBD, Vanderbilt, Mich.

SMOOTH SKIN FOR $5.00

I used the CUTICURA REMEDIES for about two months, and the entire expense was but $5.00, which no one would regret for a nice smooth skin. It left my face in the best of conditions, free from all pimples and blotches. I still use the CUTICURA SOAP, and always shall.

WASN'T THE MAN.

Undertaker Bergfeld yesterday received a letter from Mound City, Ill., written by J. G. Rhine, who is looking for a man by the name of John G. Connor. Seeing an account in the newspapers of J. O. Connor, who was killed on the P. F. some time ago, he thought perhaps it might be the man he was looking for, and sent a description to Mr. Bergfeld. The description did not tally with the dead man he was looking for, and so informed.

A GOOD POLICE FORCE.

Delphos has had less robberies and crime during the past year than any other town of similar size in the State. Hard times generally lead some people to commit Delphos has been lucky in not having many of this sort of people. We do not know the reason, unless it is on account of our excellent police protection.

A YOUNG GIRL DEAD.

Adaline the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoelderle, of Jefferson street, died Thursday evening at about 6 o'clock, from inflammation of the bowels. Mr. Hoelderle has only lived in Delphos a few years, having moved here from Yorkshire, O. The deceased was a patient sufferer for two weeks, when death came to her relief. The funeral will take place from St. John's church tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Interment in the east side cemetery.

G. A. R. LECTURE.

The lecture given at Flick's hall last evening under the auspices of the G. A. R., by Mr. W. J. Knight, on the "Andrews Raid," was very instructive and amusing. A good sized audience was present and was very much pleased. The oil paintings were something fine. The lecture netted quite a neat little sum for Reul post G. A. R. Mr. Knight went to Lima this morning, where he lectures this evening.

GAVE A CONCERT.

The Delphos Choral society went to Middlepoint last night to give their concert at Enterpean hall. The crowd from here numbered about one hundred people including the singers. The hall was packed and the program was rendered in an excellent manner under the leadership of Prof. H. W. Owens. This concert proves that the society is in excellent shape for the coming eisteddfod at this place. No. 8 was stopped at Middlepoint last night to bring the crowd back to Delphos. We might say in connection with this that the Delphos Choral society is going in for victory at the eisteddfod, and if any of the other societies want to stand any show at all they will have to do some pretty fine singing.

THE P., A. & W.

It is said that within a few days arrangements will be completed by which the P., A. & W. Railroad company will be placed in a position to pay all liens now standing against it. The receiver proposes to issue certificates aggregating $400,000. It is understood that a deal is already completed whereby the receiver of the company will be able to float the certificates. The liens amount to about $300,000. This will leave $100,000 to care for other indebtedness. The plan outlined also provides that the receiver will be given permission to operate the road fo a few years. A journal entry in common pleas court at Akron has been agreed upon substantially, which embodies these provisions. The big mortgage of several million dollars against the road will not be foreclosed. If these plans are carried out it will leave about $10,000 in the hands of employes of the road in Delphos.

HON. EX-SPEAKER NOYES.

Our Statesman Cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura.

The Great Senator and Representative Recommends Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy to the Weak, Nervous and Ailing. It is the Best Spring Medicine to Take.

PROBABLY more depends upon the character of the recommendation than on anything else. If a person you personally know tells you that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will cure you because it has cured him, you take his word. Here is Massachusetts' greatest and foremost statesman whom all our readers know, Hon. Ex-Speaker Noyes, of the House of Representatives, who tells you what this wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, has done for him, and advises you to take it and get well, if you are sick, weak, nervous, sleepless, debilitated or run down in health. He assures you that it cured him and he is positive that it will cure you.

"It seems to me nothing could have contributed so much to invigorate and recreate as it were, my severely taxed nerves and debilitated vitality as did this excellent remedy. And to all needing some invigorating and permanent restorative to mind and body over-burdened in business or other cases, I desire to offer my testimony in behalf of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy as the very best medicine within my knowledge or observation. I am willing that the best possible use should be made of this note to bring the matter to the attention of others suffering as I was. CHARLES J. NOYES,

Equitable Building, Boston, Mass.

HON. EX-SPEAKER CHARLES J. NOYES.

The newspapers say of Hon. Mr Noyes: "No citizen of Boston stands higher in public estimation than he. A lawyer of the greatest eminence and highest ability, he is a born leader of men. In public life for nearly half a century, he is a representative citizen, one of the most popular and best known men in the United States.

"He was elected a Senator and was eight times returned to the House of Representatives. It shows in what high estimation he is held by the people that he was five different years elected speaker of the House of Representatives. Gov. Long made him a Justice, knowing that he is of unquestioned integrity, superior ability and great conscientiousness. A man of majestic brain, he is a great statesman and has few equals as an orator. He was at one time a candidate for Lieut. Governor and he nominated Alger for President, in the National Convention."

Such is the eminence and standing of the gentleman who writes the following for the public welfare;

"Having used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy during my convalescence from a severe rheumatism, and experiencing its very beneficial results in accelerating my recovery, by imparting a healthy tone to my whole over-wrought nervous system, I write that others needing a like restorative may have a like advantage.

Hon. Ex-Speaker Noyes is and always will be a boon to his fellow men, and in thus giving his advice to the suffering, and the weight of his high standing and eminent reputation to his indorsement of the wonderful curative virtues of the great medical discovery, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, he is proving himself a benefactor to those who are sick, weak, nervous and ailing. It is a fact that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy cures. The sick need it to make them well. Those who do not call themselves exactly sick, but who are ailing, out of order and do not feel just right, should take it, for it will put them in perfect health and strength. Everybody needs it now when a spring medicine is necessary to maintain health. It is the best spring medicine possible to take.

Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York City, its discoverer, is our most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

The Paving Question.

EDITOR TIMES-DEMOCRAT:—Since the subject of paving is being agitated again, we feel inclined to add our 'mite' to what has already been said, earnestly entreating the council to proceed with the work of paving as soon as practicable. Not only ought the Public Square to be paved, but Main street north to McKibben and south to Circular street.

This, perhaps, would be a creditable beginning. Then add to this yearly the amount of money in paving which is now expended upon the streets for crushed stone, (which is hauled on the streets in the fall and off in the spring). With what material shall we pave? Brick, of course! Brick paving has come to stay. Our best brick are made of shale, but more care should be exercised in their manufacture. They should be thoroughly vitrified, which with Ohio shale, requires seven days burning, two days' setting, seven days' cooling, and drawing three or four days. After water smoking, the temperature should be raised to a white heat, and kept at that point till they shrink to the proper size. In a test made at Anderson, Ind., June 5th, 1892, of paving brick, a sample submitted by the Canton Brick Co., of Canton, O., stood the following test: 16 hours absorption, nothing; lost by abrasion 4 hours, 9 per cent; brick on edge, 68 tons to crush. And there are other manufactories that make equally as good a brick. The life of the brick street depends upon its construction and the quality of brick used. With the material in the paving brick market to-day, it is possible to select a brick and build a street that will equal, if not outlast any other paving material known.

The secret in making a good brick street, as well as any other of like character, is to secure a good, firm sub-grade, properly drained, upon this a good, solid foundation, if not a concrete, then just as compact and as near it as it is possible to make it with the material at hand. A foundation in which the sand cushion will not sift through and leave the paving material to settle. If brick streets are a failure, the fault will not lie entirely with the brick manufacturer, but in part, if not wholly, with the engineer. A competent engineer will know his material, whether good or bad: his specifications will give him complete control of the work, and when the street is done he will receive due credit and judgment according to his work. Brick streets in the hands of competent engineers are a grand success.

Yours in the cause of good streets,

CRONLEY.

Great Men.

The greatest men are those who have done the most for the good and advancement of the human race. The man who stands most prominently before the public to-day in the cure of disease is Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York, the discoverer of that wonderful remedy, Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. He is the founder of that great system of giving consultation and advice by means of letter correspondence, free of charge.

Write him a description of your complaint, or send for his symptom blank, and he will send you an exact description of your disease. He gives most careful and explicit attention to all letters, answering all questions and thoroughly explaining each symptom so that you will know exactly what your complaint is: and for all this he makes no charge. Dr. Greene is the most successful specialist in the cure of all nervous and chronic diseases and he gives you the benefit of his valuable advice with no expense to yourself, and by thus writing him about your case you will undoubtedly regain your health.

There has been nothing more learned in regard to the note which was found by Jacob Leifer about one-half mile north of McCullough's lake and the police have decided that the thing was a fake.

DECAPITATED.

A Kenton Man Killed on the C. & E. at McGuffey.

About seven o'clock last evening, a rapidly moving freight train on the C. & E. struck and instantly killed a man named William Powers, who was walking on the track near McGuffey, a small station about twenty miles east of this city.

The train was west bound, and when near the station named, the engineer discovered the man walking leisurely along the track in the same direction. The whistle was blown to warn him of his danger, but he paid no attention to it, and in another instant the pilot struck and knocked him down. The engine and several cars passed over the body before the train was brought to a standstill and when the trainmen drew the lifeless body from beneath a box car, they found that the head was completely severed from the body. The remains were removed to the station at McGuffey, where the coroner was summoned and the inquest held. It is thought that the unfortunate man was intoxicated when he met his death. The remains were identified as those of William Powers, of Kenton, who had recently been working at McGuffey.

The body was taken to Kenton on the east-bound local this morning.

BURNET HOUSE

Damaged by Fire Early This Morning.

About 4:30 o'clock this morning landlord Brunt went into the kitchen at the Burnet House and discovered the floor in flames. Both fire departments were called out and the central department soon had a stream of water on, but before the flames were extinguished the contents of the kitchen were badly damaged. The fire had a good start and would have made a very serious blaze had it not been discovered when it was. It is supposed to have originated from a stove.

The damage will aggregate about $300 and is covered with insurance.

HALL

Is Tried on the Charge of Contempt.

He Makes a General Denial of all Charges.

The Evidence is Submitted Without any Argument,

And a Decision in the Case is Passed by Judge Richie

Until a Future Date—A Letter Introduced as Evidence by the Prosecution—The Defendant's Memory Bad in Many Places.

The investigation of the information against H. E. Hall, for alleged contempt of court, in attempting to influence a member of the grand jury, while investigating the charges against F. L. Langan, was begun before Judge Richie in Common Pleas Court at 8:30 o'clock this morning.

Attorney Price again conducted the investigation, while Attorneys Prophet and Mead appeared for Mr. Hall.

The crowd was not as large as that of yesterday, when Mr. Faurot's hearing took place, but every seat in the room was taken.

The information against Hall, which was published in the TIMES-DEMOCRAT yesterday, was read, after which the defense made the following motion to quash the information, for the following reasons:

"The said H. E. Hall now comes and moves the court to quash the information in this proceeding by reason of certain defects apparent upon the face of the record in this, to-wit:

"First. The information does not state the name of the juror whom the said H. E. Hall is charged with attempting to influence in his action as a member of the grand jury.

"Second. The information was not presented to the court nor any person appointed by the court, nor any person appointed by the court to present the same.

"Third. That said information is not sworn to.

"Fourth. For other defects apparent upon the face of the record."

After the arguments Judge Richie over-ruled the motion and the investigation proceeded.

Deputy Sheriff John Franks was the first witness put on the stand and swore to being the father of J. Chas. R. Franks, being acquainted with Mr. Hall, his being a witness before the recent grand jury, and to meeting Hall at his home at 331½ North Main street while that body was in session. Hall came there in the evening, about 8 o'clock, but witness could not remember the date. Hall said he wanted to see Charley and witness told him he was at the Opera House. While talking to him witness spoke to him about his getting Charley a position in Cincinnati, and Hall said he thought he COULD SECURE HIM ONE.

Clem F. Moore was next called. He took the stand and swore to being manager of Faurot's Opera House. The witness also testified: "I met Hall in the foyer of the Opera House on the night of February 12th—the night of the White Slave performance. He asked me if I had seen anything of Charley Franks and I told him he was in the gallery. Hall went into the lower part of the house. He came out several times but did not see him go into the gallery."

Jack Edmonds followed and testified: "Was at Faurot's opera house on the night of the White Slave. Am an usher at the opera house. Saw Mr. Hall and he inquired if I had seen Charley Franks. I told him I though he was in the gallery. Presently I saw Hall and Franks down stairs and I seated them in the parquet. There was no third person with them."

James Sullivan took the stand and testified to being a bookkeeper for the Manhattan Oil Company, and seeing Mr. Hall talking to Jack Edmonds on the night the White Slave was at the opera house.

Charley Franks, the grand juror whom it was charged Hall attempted to influence, took the stand and was examined as follows by attorney Price for the court:

After the questions as to his

and his being acquainted with Hall, he testified to meeting Hall at the head of the balcony stairs at the White Slave performance. The witness then said:

"I shook hands with him; he said he was looking for me; he was standing there looking up in the gallery. He said he intended to take me down stairs, so we turned around and went down stairs, and Mr. Edmunds, one of the ushers, showed us a seat, and we went down and sat in the parquet. He told me he thought he could get me a position with the Union Central Life Insurance Company, and adding that Mr. Faurot, and Mr. Marshall, the manager of the Union Central Life Insurance Company, were great friends, and that Mr. Faurot had a lot of influence over Mr. Marshall, and if it had not been for Mr. Faurot's influence he could not have got away and came up here to be a witness before the grand jury. He told me if I would do what was right in the grand jury room I could get a position, and he said it would not be only a position but there would be some good hard stuff in it. He asked me if I knew any of the grand jurors and I said yes; he said you ought to understand this case a good deal better than some of them farmers, and ought to have some influence over them; he said Mr. Langan is guilty, and that Doolittle, the expert, knew lots of things he didn't tell that he would tell when the trial came up. He told me he would see Mr. Faurot the following morning and tell him about the matter and have him intercede for me for this position. We went out and Mr. Hall met an old friend of his, some gentleman that corresponded for the Cincinnati Tribune, and he went and sat down with us during the next act. That is all that was said about the case; and he told me he would write me a letter when he got back, and it ran along three or four days and I received a letter from him. I did not write to him.

Attorney Price then handed the witness

which he identified as the one Hall wrote him after returning to Cincinnati:

CINCINNATI, 2-19, 1894.

FRIEND CHARLEY:—I would suggest that you write me a letter asking about a position here, as a starter, you know. I am inclined to think that I may be able to get you in. After you write me and I have had a talk with Mr. Marshall you can write a formal letter of application to Mr. Marshall, our secretary. I haven't heard anything about the case. Let me know how everything is, will you? I think there may be an opening for you in the near future if we work it right. Hurriedly.

Your friend,
HALL."

Attorney Prophet then began the cross examination.

The witness testified to having always been friendly to Hall and to meeting him in the hall as he was coming from the grand jury room. Shook hands with him and went to dinner. Next saw him in grand jury room. I had talked to him several times about a job and he told me he would do what he could for me. Yes sir, I asked several persons where Hall was as I wanted to see him about getting me a job. Heard he was going away and went to depot to see him, but he was not there. I spoke to Hunton about the grand jury when it was found there was two members absent. There was another man with us at opera house, but I did not meet him until after Hall had spoke to me about my doing the right thing by Faurot in the grand jury. After Hall had approached me I told my father when I got home and he said it was bribery. Then I told Mr. Langan about it.

After a recess of ten minutes the investigation resumed. The prosecution, having rested,

MR. HALL TOOK THE STAND,

Attorney Mead succeeding Mr. Prophet in conducting the examination. Mr. Hall testified to his whereabouts during the past couple of years: his being acquainted with Chas. R. Franks, having taught him penmanship, and his opinion that Franks was a very skillful penman. Hall also testified to having been a witness before the grand jury which investigated the charges against Langan, and to his coming here from Cincinnati on the 12th of February to testify. He also testified to having met him at noon, as testified to by Mr. Franks, and his having exchanged greetings with him, and to his being before the grand jury on the afternoon of that date. During the evening when I was on the street, said the witness, I met several persons, whose names I do not remember, who told me Charley Franks was looking for me. I happened to drop into the opera house. I had done work for dramatic papers.

I met Mr. Reeder first in the afternoon, and in the evening I dropped into the Burnet House and at the same time I reflected that Charlie had been looking for me, and I asked someone there if they had seen him around there, as he 'oated about there a good deal, and they told me he had not been there but they said that he lived very close and directed me where he lived. I did not know at the time, and I started over there, it was but a short distance. I stepped over to some block, I forget just what one, the block just above the court house and dropped in there. I asked Mr. Franks what Charley wanted with me, that I had heard that he was looking for me. He said yes he was, that he had gone to the train. He expected I would go away on the six o'clock train, but he did not find you. I think he is in town somewhere looking for you now. And Mr. and Mrs. Franks began talking about Charlie, and asked me if I had done any thing yet, it had been frequent in my meetings with Mr. Franks, he was anxious for Charlie. I had promised to do what I could for him and on that evening both of them showed anxiety, and Mr. Franks was was enough interested to go with me. He said he wants to see you, and I will go with you and look him up and he came with me. I went to the W. U. telegraph office and Mr. Franks came back directly and informed me Charley was in the gallery. Mr. Franks said, Now, Mr. Hall, as much as you can for the boy. We came down stairs together, but we separated at the foot of the stairs. I went round to the opera house. I met Charley coming down from the balcony. We had no conversation, beyond a few remarks. I met Reeder in the audience and we went over and talked with him. Franks asked me what I thought of him as a grand juror and remarked that Faurot was a much-abused man and that they were after him hot, but thought he would come out all right, and mentioned, I believe, two grand jurors who were tenants on his farm.

I WANT YOU TO DO

On the cross examination by attorney Price, the witness acknowledged that he had been called here from Atlanta, Ga., by Mr. Faurot to testify before the grand jury; that he had been at his office where the matter was talked over; first that he had received no money from Faurot, then after a moments hesitation, that he had paid his traveling expenses and for his time, but could not remember the amounts. He also testified that he was paid by the county for his services as a witness and that Faurot had paid him for his time. He could not remember the amounts in either case. He acknowledged having sent the Cincinnati Tribune a special immediately after the former indictment against Langan had been nolled, in which he said the odium still hung to him. His memory seemed very defective and he had to be reminded of several matters by the questioner before he was enabled to answer them in a satisfactory manner. He made a general denial of Franks' charges.

Turner West, operator in the Buckeye Pipe Line office, was put on the stand and testified about John Franks meeting Hal in the W. U. telegraph office and Franks telling Hall to do what he could for the boy.

Mr. Hall was recalled, the defense desiring to prove by him that they did not have time to send for Mr. Reeder, when the Court stopped him and said that there was no time for such a proceeding. They had had time to prepare their case and his presence was immaterial anyhow. Attorney Prophet made an effort to gain a point and get a postponement, but failed. Court then recessed until 1 o'clock.

Mr. Hall was put on the stand at the opening of the afternoon session and he proceeded to explain why he wrote the letter introduced as evidence. He said that on several occasions he had been asked by Franks, Sr., to get his son a job and, the witness having his present position he thought he could get him a position and wrote him the letter.

On cross examination he testified to having been with Mr. Faurot before seeing Charley Franks. He also testified that he was passed into the house by Mr. Faurot, but was in doubt as to whether he and Faurot were out together, and he also might have told Faurot that Charley Franks was looking for him and he wanted to see him.

Deputy Franks was placed on the stand again, and denied having told Hall that Charley had gone to the depot.

Charley Franks was replaced on the stand and said that when he inquired for Hall, Clem Moore said he had just gone out with B. C. Faurot. Witness denied ever saying to Hall that Faurot was a much abused man but would come out all right. He also denied asking Hall what he thought of him as a grand juror.

Clem Moore was also recalled. He testified that Faurot and Hall entered the opera house together and Hall came out shortly afterward and inquired for Franks. Afterwards Hall and Faurot went out together.

The prosecution rested their case as also did the defense. Attorney Price stated they submitted his side of the case without argument, attorney Mead remarking:

"We have nothing to say unless they have."

Judge Richie then announced that, as Hall would be here next week as a witness in the Langan case he would continue saying anything until a week from Monday, and the case was ended for the time being.

AN EASY MARK.

The Republican Ticket Nominated Yesterday Regarded as a Very Weak One.

Hundreds of Republicans Avow They Will Not Support Smiley at the General Election.

The Republican primary election held yesterday brought out a fairly good vote of the faithful and the following ticket was nominated:

Mayor—James V. Smiley.
Solicitor—Charles P. Adgate.
Street Commissioner—T. J. Hites.
City Engineer—Robt. Gamble.
Water Works Trustee—G. Wykoff.
School Board—F. W. Holmes.

COUNCILMEN.

First Ward—E. D. Povenmire.
Second Ward—No nomination—a tie between B. G. Stump and Wm. Roberts.
Third Ward—Dexter Chapin.
Fourth Ward—J. H. Allen.
Fifth Ward—J. W. Kemper.
Sixth Ward—W. H. Standish.
Seventh Ward—James Harley.

ASSESSORS.

First Ward—G. W. Glaize.
Second Ward—William Wise.
Third Ward—T. D. Watkins.
Fourth Ward—Wm. Lauck.
Fifth Ward—J. A. Kepner.
Sixth Word—J. J. Hover.
Seventh Ward—A. Levi.

The result of the election was a surprise to most of the Republicans, for a ticket was nominated which the party did not want. Of all the nominees on the municipal ticket the only man who received a majority of votes cast was Wm. Murnaugh, for Constable. Everybody in the Republican fold, except the small contingent which helped create the plurality that named the winner, is sick, and is kicking over the ill-wind that blew Smiley upon the ticket. The vote upon the municipal ticket is as follows:

"Which Is It?"

The poor, much abused stomach is often made the scapegoat of graver ills than its own, on account of its close proxmity to a neighbor with whom it is in direct sympathy, so that what is deemed stomachic derangement is in many instances really intestinal. The Carlsbad Sprudal Water is a most valuable and long tried tonic to the stomach, stimulating appetite and aiding digestion without any reactionary troubles, and exerts also a lasting influence on the glandular and peristaltic actions of the intestinal tract. The genuine has the signature of the Eisner & Mendelson Co., Sole Agents, New York, on the bottle and wrapper.

DECIDED SUCCESS

Was the Public School Entertainment Last Night.

The school library entertainment was given by pupils of the public schools in the opera house last night was a decided success, but the attendance was not as large as the affair deserved.

The songs were all very good. The military drill and music by the mandolin club were very pleasing features. The spelling match only had a small number of contestants and was in the end declared a draw between William Sheelly and Mrs. Vickery. They divided the two prizes, which amounted at $7, and Mrs. Vickery very kindly donated her portion to the school library fund. The following programme was given:
